CAMERON COUNTY'S FIRST ANNUAL GIANT CHRISTMAS TREE LIGHTING FESTIVAL TO BE HELD ON DECEMBER 4TH AT THE CAMERON COUNTY AMPHITHEATER & EVENTS CENTER IN SOUTH PADRE ISLAND, TX.

In the spirit of Christmas, Cameron County is pleased to announce its first annual Christmas tree lighting festival where alongside family, friends, and loved ones, will bring to light a giant Christmas tree that will signal the beginning of holiday celebrations!

This festival will include great family entertainment such as a skating rink, snow, fireworks, local live music acts and more! The entertainment lineup will consist of local Texas Outlaw Music Band WHISKEY D, followed by HOTEL CALIFORNIA, the Original Eagles Tribute Band endorsed by The Eagles themselves, and making a special appearance and singing all the classic hits Tommy DeCarlo, Singer of BOSTON. This grand festival is scheduled from 3:00 p.m. until 10:30 p.m. at the Amphitheater located inside Isla Blanca Park on Saturday, December 4, 2021, with the Christmas tree lighting ceremony at 6:00 p.m. Food trucks & booths will be on-site.

Tickets are available through Eventbrite at <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/spi-holiday-concert-tickets-209196902567> or by scanning the QR code available at the Cameron County Amphitheater and Event Center Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/CCAmphEventCtr/>. For more information call (956) 330-3061.

“We are very excited to announce our first annual giant Christmas tree lighting ceremony and festival where we will celebrate the holiday spirit together and have a great time. We’re breaking ground with this first annual magical family outing where your children, friends, and neighbors will enjoy the great entertainment scheduled and have a wonderful time skating near the beautiful Dolphin Cove area at Isla Blanca Park. On behalf of the Cameron County Commissioners’ Court, we invite everyone to enjoy the music, food & snow. We hope to see you all there!” stated Cameron County Judge Eddie Treviño, Jr.
