

SPECIAL ORDER NO. _____

IN RE: } IN THE 444TH STATE JUDICIAL DISTRICT
}
STANDING ORDER REGARDING]
FINAL DIVORCE HEARINGS } CAMERON COUNTY, TEXAS

STANDING ORDER REGARDING ALL FINAL HEARINGS IN DIVORCE PROCEEDINGS

Be it known from this day forward the following standing order is immediately in effect in the 444th State District Court, Cameron County Texas. From this day forward, both parties scheduled for a final hearing on a divorce cause of action, are required to submit the following form spreadsheet completely filled out with the parties' property and debt information at least 2 days before the scheduled final hearing. This will avoid having said hearing canceled and rescheduled to be in compliance with this court's standing order. In addition, all parties shall exchange exhibits at least 48 hours prior to any final hearing scheduled and confer on agreements as to admissibility of said exhibits. This order is a standing order taking effect immediately in the 444th State District court and will remain in full force until further orders of this court.

Entered this 10th day of November, 2022.

David A. Sanchez,

Judge, 444th State District Ct.
