CAMERON COUNTY CONSOLIDATED 2022 PERSONAL PROPERTY FINAL TAX STATEMENT

BROWNSVILLE, TEXAS — Tony Yzaguirre, Jr., Cameron County Tax Assessor-Collector wishes to inform personal property owners that 5,632 final tax statements for tax year 2022 will be mailed out for personal property totaling $5,163,007.01, which have not been paid. "Approximately 89% of property taxes that the Cameron County collects for have already been paid. Taxpayers took advantage of the tax discounts offered in October, November, and December," said Yzaguirre. "We want everyone to pay their taxes or to take advantage of various payment plan options our office provides, before they accrue additional penalties and interest that started on February 1, 2023, in accordance with Texas Property Tax Code Sec. 33.01 (Penalties and Interest)."

Taxes for the year 2022 were due by January 31, 2023, and became delinquent February 1, 2023. On February 1, 2023, all tax accounts which have not been paid in full have accrued a 7% fee for penalties and interest. All personal property accounts will be assessed 15% to 20% attorney fees for any balance due after April 1, 2023. Property owners, who have not received their tax statement(s), should contact one of the Tax Assessor-Collector's Offices immediately.

"Taxpayers can pay their taxes online at www.cameroncountytexas.gov/tac or at any of our 10 branch offices countywide," added Yzaguirre. Drop-off boxes conveniently accessible 24/7 for tax payments paid by check or money orders only may be dropped off at the Brownsville Main Office on East Levee Street between East 8th Street and East 9th Street in Brownsville, Port Isabel Branch Office at 505 Highway 100, Los Fresnos Branch Office located at 745 W. Ocean Blvd, Harlingen Branch Office at 3302 Wilson Rd., San Benito Motor Bank located at 199 S. Sam Houston, and our new Harlingen Motor Bank located at 300 E. Van Buren. In addition to these payment options we also have the convenience of several locations with drive up lanes in Brownsville, Harlingen, Los Fresnos, Port Isabel, and our brand-new motor bank locations in San Benito and Harlingen.

Methods of Payment

- Payments over the Internet - allows taxpayers to pay their taxes by electronic check or credit card in the convenience of their home or office over the internet by going to www.cameroncountytexas.gov/tac . A service fee of $2 will be charged to pay a property tax bill using an Internet check in the amount of $5,000 or less, online check payments over $5,000 will be charged $5, *Credit and debit cards will incur a 3% convenience fee online and in person. We hope that you will find this website a useful tool. Please feel free to call us or visit any one of our 10 locations including our two new motor bank locations for personal service.
- Partial payments - allows taxpayers come into the office and pay their taxes in several payments.
- Tax payment agreement – where a taxpayer comes into our office and signs a payment agreement to pay their taxes.
- Mail-In payments – when a taxpayer mails the total amount of their property taxes.
- Over the counter payments – when a taxpayer pays their taxes over the counter using their check, cash or credit card (VISA, MasterCard, Discover, and American Express).

The Cameron County Tax Office entered into agreements to collect property taxes for the last four districts in Cameron County. As of September 22, 2021, the Cameron County Tax Assessor-Collector's Office is now collecting for the City of Harlingen, Harlingen C.I.S.D., Los Fresnos C.I.S.D., and Rio Hondo I.S.D. Taxpayers will no longer need to visit another office in order to pay their property taxes. The Tax Assessor-Collector's Office now is the sole Tax Assessor-Collector for all Cameron County Districts.

"It is very important to pay all property taxes this year, because our office will continue with our aggressive collection programs this year," Yzaguirre said.
