

FILING FOR HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION

Who can apply for a...

General Residential Homestead Exemption - Person who owns and lives at the residence

- Fill out Residence Homestead Application
- Bring Texas Driver's License or Texas Identification
- If there are multiple owners, ID's must be provided for all.

Disability Homestead Exemption - Person who receives disability benefits like SSVI

- Fill out Residence Homestead Application
- Bring Texas Driver's License or Texas Identification
- Must bring SSN Disability letter

Over-65 Exemption - Person who owns and lives at the residence is eligible for this exemption on the year they turn 65

- Fill out Residence Homestead Application
- Bring Texas Driver's License or Texas Identification

Disabled Veteran Exemption - Person who owns and lives at the residence

- Fill out Residence Homestead Application
- Bring Texas Driver's License or Texas Identification
- DD-214
- Disabled Veteran Letter

The address listed on the Driver's License or Identification must correspond to the property address for which the exemption is requested.